

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS AND APPLIED PROBABILITY
STATISTICS LEARNING CENTRE
Semester 1, Academic Year 2009/10

Are you confused by statistical concepts?

OR

Do you have a problem understanding the procedure of a statistical analysis?

Don't worry!! Help is available now at the Statistics Learning Centre.

The centre is set up to help students who are reading any ST 1000-level modules, ST2131, ST2238, and ST2334. Our experienced professors, assisted by our graduate students, are there to help students to clear their confusions and to enhance their understanding of statistical concepts.

The operating hours of the centre are as follows:

* Wednesdays, 10am - 12pm

* Thursday, 10am - 12pm

The Statistics learning centre is located at Bldg S16/07-107 (Statistics Reading Room).
The centre will be opened from Week 4 to Reading Week.
